The Republicans have resumed in Ohio.
Ohio fosters the Republican party with not less than 25,000.
Business, waives, and the Republican party, are all on the boom.
George William Curtis should be laid away with Ewing. Their loss will not be felt.
The Republicans have won a grand victory, and the Democrats have received a grand bounce.
Not proposing to be outdone, New York will give a Republican victory akin to that in Ohio and Iowa.
Jenkins should be either muzzled or become better informed. He is raising Ned with the Democratic faiths.
"When the lion roars let the beasts of the forest tremble: When Ohio speaks let the Democratic party keep silence."
The Ohio Republican majority is a severe punishment of the solid South. The South will get more of it before the close of 1879.
The Democrats of Ohio repudiated honest money, and the people of Ohio repudiated the Democratic party. This makes the matter even.
Hon. J. C. Burrows, of Michigan, spoke at an immense audience at Beloit on Thursday evening. It was the biggest political meeting ever held in that city.
The Democrats are anxious that the Republicans of Wisconsin shall deal gently with the young man, Jenkins. Can't let him off with less than 15,000 against him.
When the news spread over the wires that Ohio had gone Republican by 25,000 or 30,000 majority, the price of wheat ran up five cents a bushel. Even rye went on a frolic, put on airs, and raised its price.
Mr. Jenkins denounces Thomas Jefferson as a traitor, and so on. When it is considered that Jefferson was the father of the Declaration of Independence, this is a bold statement for a young man to make who cheered for secession in 1862.

FROM OHIO.
The Doomed Democracy—They Give Up Everything.
CINCINNATI, Oct. 16.—To-day has swept away the last vestige of hope for the Democracy of Ohio, as regards the result of yesterday's election. Up to noon to-day some fought against the overwhelming reports of last night, and that a majority in the Legislature was left them, or at least the control of one house by which they could check the work of doing that which has been done in the past two years; but even that hope is now gone. The most sanguine of the party figures to-night, upon the reports received from Columbus, give up everything and say that the Republicans will have a majority in both branches of the Legislature, amounting on joint ballot to probably twelve or fifteen. The only comfort drawn by them from to-day's development is the fact that that Foster's majority will not probably be so great as was last night indicated. The reports last night received were mostly from the cities, and it now appears that it is in these that the Republican gains have been largest. From the indications to-night it is favorable. Foster's plurality will not be over 20,000, and, indeed, it may fall to 15,000. In Hamilton county every man on the Republican ticket is elected, the majority ranging from 1,000 to 4,000. Williams, the colored man, is elected to the Legislature by a majority of 1,024. He is counted one of the most intelligent of legislators elected in this county.

IOWA.
Returns From Forty-two Counties—The Majorities.
DES MOINES, Oct. 15 11 p.m.—The Republican State Committee and the State Register have, up to this hour, definite returns from forty-two counties add partial returns from as many more. These indicate a majority of the Republican State ticket of 25,000 over all the three other parties, a Republican gain of 27,000 over 1877, and 19,000 over 1878. Gear's majority over Trumble, Democrat, is estimated by Mr. Russell, Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee at 75,000, and his majority over Campbell, Greenbacker, at over 100,000. On the Legislature Mr. Russell claims 29 Senators elected this year, with a chance of electing all, and 89 out of the 100 members of the house.

WASHINGTON.
Republicans Jubilant—The Democrats Dismayed.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—Almost the sole topic of conversation here to-day has been the Ohio election and its probable far-reaching effect. The Republicans are surprised at the overwhelming character of their victory and the Democrats dismayed. Republicans have put in the day mainly in running from one to another with the latest dispatch, which was invariably more cheering than the previous one. A characteristic of the news was that it got better and better. About 12 o'clock the Democrats ceased to claim the Legislature, and then gave the whole thing up as a Waterloo. Senator Thurman's friends are especially dismayed for the future of their great leader. They admit that he is killed off, as a Presidential candidate, and it is patent that he cannot be returned to the Senate.

WISCONSIN.
Congratulations the Order of the Day.
MADISON, Oct. 16.—Republicans were jubilant here last night and to-day over the glorious returns from Ohio and Iowa. Nothing but the beaming faces of Republicans were visible on the streets, and congratulations were the order of the day. The Democrats surrendered gracefully and admit it is an off year for them. One hundred Republicans have been appointed as a committee to go to Beloit to-morrow to meet the Hon. James G. Blaine and escort him to this city. He will speak here to-morrow night, and it will be one of the grandest occasions ever held here.

IN A WELL.
EVANVILLE, Wis., Oct. 15.—Mr. Cephas Pinkham, of this town, was covered up in a well forty-seven feet deep this forenoon, on the farm of Joel Morgan, in the town of Ruthland, six miles north of here. He was repairing the curbings; when it went in with a crash, some twenty-five feet of earth covering him. Friends are removing the same as fast as possible. The remains will probably not be recovered before to-morrow.

FACE TO FACE.
Here's an Iowa Romance That Eclipses Mrs. E. D. E. Southworth. Atchison (Kan.) Patriot. Many of the readers of the Patriot will remember, during the session of the recent Ladies' Foreign Missionary society, the presence of a finely dressed, fine looking lady, named Mrs. Foster, who took an active part in the proceedings of the meeting, and during one evening of the week delivered a lecture on temperance, that was largely attended. She was a lawress, being associated with her husband at Clinton, Iowa, in the practice of law, under the firm name of Foster & Foster. The Kansas City Journal finishes the story we have here commenced as follows:— "Once upon a time, as all true stories begin— but for the sake of accuracy, say fifteen years ago—Rev. Dr. Warren, a somewhat celebrated clergyman of Philadelphia, performed the marriage ceremony for two people, who afterwards sent out their cards, inscribed "Mr. and Mrs. Avery, at home to their friends Tuesdays and Fridays, in the afternoon." A few weeks later found Mr. and Mrs. Avery comfortably located in Manhattan, Kansas. Mrs. Avery was one of that class called "strong-minded" women. She was an advocate of female suffrage, made speeches and wrote for the papers. So far as, however, the public knew, the marriage life of the Averys had the average amount of felicity in it. One day Avery went away—nobody seemed to know just where. Some said he went to Colorado to make his fortune in the mines; some said he had gone to look after a railroad contract somewhere. He never came back. The people of Manhattan forgot him, and even Mrs. Avery gave him up for dead. Her neighbors called her a "strong woman," and she is a very intelligent, energetic woman. She is now a member of the law firm of Foster & Foster, Clinton, Iowa, and is said to be the only woman who has been admitted to the bar in that State. Her name isn't Avery now. One day Judge Foster was introduced to Mrs. Avery. Another day, a month later, he married her, she in the meantime having taken care to procure a divorce from Avery on the ground of desertion, for fear he might turn up sometime. Mrs. Foster studied law with her husband, and assisted him in his legal business, which is quite large, as Judge Foster is one of the most eminent lawyers in the Hawkeye state. Being a woman of spirit, or rather a public spirited woman, she naturally enlisted in the cause of temperance, and was elected President of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. She attended the national temperance camp meeting at Bismarck, in August, and took a very active part in the proceedings. She remained also through the church encampment, which immediately followed the temperance camp meeting. Rev. Dr. Warren of Philadelphia, who performed the ceremony at the time Mrs. Foster was married to her first husband, attended the church encampment and renewed their old acquaintance. When the church encampment closed, Mrs. Judge Foster and another lady went over to Denver together. A few days later, Rev. Dr. Warren took the train for Denver. In this city he was the guest of Rev. Earl Cranston, pastor of the Methodist church. The next Sunday after his arrival he sat in Earl Cranston's pew, and glancing up at Mr. Cranston in the pulpit, he noticed a very strange look on his face. Mr. Cranston's look seemed to be directed to someone behind Dr. Warren, and the doctor turned round to see what it was that attracted Mr. Cranston's attention. On the next seat behind him Dr. Warren saw Mrs. Foster and just behind her a man whom he recognized at once as the long lost Avery. The look of surprise and astonishment which the doctor's features presented, attracted Mrs. Foster's attention and she turned around to see what it was behind that interested so many people. As she turned her movement attracted the attention of the people in the next seat behind her, and she found herself face to face with her first husband, whom she supposed dead. Their eyes met, and the recognition was instantaneous and mutual, although they had not seen each other for fifteen years. Beside Mr. Avery sat a woman and two or three children. It was his family. She got up and left the church; Avery remained through the service. All that night Mrs. Foster walked the floor in her room, silent but greatly agitated. The next morning Mr. Avery called, and in the presence of friend, had an interview. The meeting was like that of acquaintances, cold, formal, and yet very quiet, and devoid of any sensational features. Mr. Avery, so far as the reporter knows, gave no explanation of his mysterious disappearance and subsequent marriage, and was asked for none. He had married during his absence and has five children, whom he invited Mrs. Foster to visit. Later in the day Mrs. Foster called on her first husband, and they were a family. Mr. Avery's home, as the reporter is informed, is in Denver. Mrs. Foster has returned to her desk and resumed her law practice in Clinton.

SPLENDIDS!
Sold from the little store, 56 North Main Street, alone, and every one giving perfect satisfaction. It is an easy matter for dealers to every season put in print. "Well, now you have got a stove to beat the Splendid." But when you ask them to show you the points of superiority, about all the satisfaction you get is "Oh! we were made for it, and foot rails," &c.; but when you go down to business, the following points possessed by the SPLENDID, and found in no other stove to date, is what troubles all the boys to get around:
1st. By the Ventilated Base we present one-third more heating surface.
2d. By the Latch fastenings for all doors, in place of Turn Buckles, you are safe from doors springing open, thereby emitting gases into room.
3d. By the sliding and vibrating Grate we enable you to have a fresh fire at any time free from dust and waste of coal.
4th. The sectional Fire Pot will last longer and can be replaced at one third the expense of any other.
5th. The Revolving Pot swinging within circle of stove, never falls off or gets broken.
In regard to finish and fittings of castings and beauty of design, are way ahead of all competition.
In regard to the Splendid Oven or Parlor Cook, we are authorized to make a public test at any time, and guarantee to get up steam quicker and hot water on same amount of coal.
We have also the new

A Remarkable Case.

One night in 1801 a little girl, about one year old, was deposited in the drawer of the founding hospital at Brest. She was dressed in a baby's dress, and a note attached to her skirt, told that her name was Solange, and that she would be reclaimed by her father. The claim was never made, however, and in due time the child was transferred to the orphan asylum to be educated there. As she grew up she developed a most extraordinary beauty, but her intellect appeared to be very weak, and she suffered from frequent nervous fits. When she was twelve years old she was sent out into the streets to sell flowers, and her beauty and her modesty attracted many people's good-will, but she grew weaker and weaker and at last she died. According to French custom, she was buried in an open basket, and as it was winter and the soil was frozen, she was laid into the grave, only covered with a thin layer of sand. During the night she awoke, and, pushing the sand away, she crept out from this grave. Not exactly understanding what had taken place, she was not very much frightened, but in crossing the glacial between the cemetery and fortifications she was suddenly stopped by the outcry, "Qui vive?" and as she did not answer, she was seized and she fell back into the ground. Brought into the guard-house her wound was found to be very slight, and she soon recovered, but her singular history and also her great beauty had made so deep an impression on a young lieutenant of the garrison (Kramer) that he determined to be her protector, and sent her to one of the most fashionable educational establishments in Paris. During the next few years Kramer was much tossed about by the war, but when in 1818 he returned to Paris, he found Solange a full-grown woman, not only beautiful, but accomplished and spirited, with no more trace of intellectual weakness than from his. He married her, and for several years the couple lived happily in Paris. Meanwhile, investigations were made concerning the girl left in 1801 at the founding hospital at Brest, and as these investigations were made by the Swedish ambassador and in a somewhat official manner they attracted some attention. Captain Kramer heard about the affair, and sent a note to the ambassador, and a month later, the ambassador came in state to bring Madame Kramer a formal acknowledgment from her father, the former Marshal Berenboite, afterward King Charles XIV of Sweden. Captain Kramer and his wife went immediately to Stockholm; they were employed, etc., and their son has just been appointed attaché to the Swedish Legation in Paris.

The Kentucky Supreme Court and the Case of Colonel Buford, the Convicted Murderer.

From the Indianapolis Journal.

The Judges of the Supreme Court of Kentucky have decided that they will not act in the appeal case of Thomas Buford, convicted of the murder of Judge Elliott, by reason of interest in the case. The case is probably without a parallel in jurisprudence. Judge Elliott lost his life by reason of an opinion delivered by the Supreme Court, in which two of the Judges, now on the bench, concurred with him, and another was rendered incompetent to try the case in the Supreme Court by having decided it in the court below. The Judges say that Buford's hostility was against themselves as well as against Elliott, on account of the opinion rendered against him. In their court, and that Judge Elliott was the victim was due more to the fact of Buford's accidentally encountering him at that time than to any special hostility towards him. In short, the Judges argue that they agreed with Judge Elliott in every stage of the proceedings, and that their relation to the case shows that they cannot properly sit on the appeal. The constitution and laws of Kentucky provide that whenever a majority of the Judges of the Supreme Court cannot sit on the trial of a case, by reason of interest or bias, the Governor shall appoint a special court to try the case, and that is what Governor Bracken will have to do in this instance. The court concludes its opinion by saying: "We are satisfied that we should retire from the bench in this case, making an order certifying to the Governor that he cannot preside, on account of the interest of the three Judges now present on the bench in the event of this case."

BRIEFLETS.

—The sweat of the brow keeps up.
—The militiamen's review this afternoon.
—The church folk meet for prayer to-night.
—Cannon's hall is to be thrown open this evening.
—E. F. Bliss started this afternoon for his Cincinnati home.
—"Over the Hills to the Poor House" at the Opera house this evening.
—J. Ball, of the town of Rock is cutting his second crop of tobacco for this season. How is that?
—"The Larks" open at Lappin's Music hall to-morrow evening. Look out for plenty of fun.
—Grand opening of fall styles of millinery at McKee & Bro's. Thursday evening, Oct. 21st.
—Justice Prichard started last evening for Portage City and is to be gone until Saturday. In the meantime Justice Brooks attends to the needs of the Police Court.
—John Schicker has hung out his nobby new sign announcing the fact that he has Woodstock lager for sale. Those who are judges pronounce it one of the "boss" brands.
—John Hennessey, who has been wanted for some time to answer to the charge of having been one of the burglars who entered Hatherell's store at the end of Court Street bridge, was arrested last night. He was found on Wm. Reed's farm where he had been at work. He was caught asleep, and was brought at once to the jail.
—Last night Fred Culow was arrested on a charge of stealing one hundred pounds of tobacco from the shed of Stephen Chase near Monterey, the larceny having been committed on the 9th instant. Culow says that Chase was owing him for work done by him and he took this way of getting paid. The examination has been adjourned until to-morrow morning when both sides of the affair will be more clearly brought out.
—Mr. John Wingate has been in the market selecting goods, and returned on Monday. For three days past he has been receiving new goods, and has been kept busy putting them in place. The store is now crowded full, and presents an attractive showing of new styles and patterns, including woolen goods, under garments, cloaks and cloackings, cloths and dress goods, notions, etc., etc., making a complete stock in all respects, and is now at its very best. Call and look the goods over.
—Our old townsman Hiram Bowen stopped the other night with one of his many friends here, and on retiring to his room, prepared for rest. Just before turning off the gas, he thought he would put his pocket book under his pillow as was his habit, but on looking for it, it was gone. As it contained a goodly amount of wealth to cover his expenses while away from home, the loss was a large one. He could not imagine where he had dropped it, but finally concluded it must have slid out of his pocket while in the parlors below. Dressing himself, he aroused his friend, and the search began, but all in vain, and he retired again to his room, and after a long and fruitless search there, his friend happened to move the pillow and there lay the fat leather, as contentedly as a growing oyster. Mr. Bowen owned up that if he wasn't the only absent-minded man in the world, he was one of them sure, but he slept none the less quietly, because of the discovery.

BASE BALL.

The Evansville Club, composed of the best players from different towns west of here, will play the Mutuals at the Fair Grounds to-morrow, the game commencing at 2:30. The Mutuals have no idea of winning the game, having been disorganized for some time, while the Evansville boys are in splendid trim and anxious to defeat Janesville.

TRAVELERS, stop at the ASTER HOUSE, NEW YORK.

DR. BEARDSLEY IS HERE.

Dr. E. Beardsley, of Stoughton, is now stopping at the Pembler house, where he can be consulted free of charge. He makes a specialty of asthma, catarrh and bronchitis. Those who are troubled with any such disease should call and see him. He has been in the practice sixteen years, and he has so much confidence in his method of curing that he offers $500 for any case of chronic catarrh or asthma that has been cured by any other mode of treatment.

INSPECTION TO-NIGHT.

The Bower City Rifles are inspected at their Armory this evening at 7 o'clock sharp. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend. Admission free.

DOINGS OF THE PHARMACEUTISTS.

The Official Report of the Committee on Exhibits—The members, to be Answered at the Next Meeting.

The committee on exhibits at the meeting of the Pharmaceutical Association have prepared the following report.

PHARMACEUTICAL EXHIBITS.
Four large sample rooms were selected for the exhibition of articles of interest to the pharmacist, and where everything was in such good taste, the display and arrangements so generally known, it is only necessary to give the briefest mention of each.

The largest display was by Morrison, Plummer, & Co., of Chicago, which their agent Mr. Charles Dunbach, had arranged to the very best advantage. Their line of fancy goods was one of the largest ever brought to the city. These together with specimen of crude drugs and rare chemicals completely filling one large room.

Room 3 was occupied by Mr. Strong, of C. H. Strong & Co., who exhibit druggist sundries and specialties of their own manufacture, among which were especially noticeable their "Arnica Jelly," for which there is a large demand at this season of the year, and their "DeLeon's Cocoa Hair Dressing" which is attracting the attention of the trade as an article of real merit, furnished at a reasonable price.

The exhibit of E. P. Penfield & Co., of Philadelphia, which filled Room 2, is devoted entirely to trusses, braces and supporters of all descriptions and their New Improved Celluloid Trusses. This house was represented by Mr. C. E. Kenyon.

W. H. Tallman, Janesville, exhibits a very neat line of Perfumes, Toilet Articles and Specialties.

Fland and Solid Extracts, Resenoids and Crude Drugs were exhibited by Henry Thayer & Co., Cambridgeport, Mass.

The Ironclad Wine Co., Rochester, New York, display excellent samples of Port, Sherry and Catawba Wines, Vintage of 1873, which they sell exclusively to the drug trade.

Dundas, Dick & Co. show soft capsules and several specialties, among which were noticed "Laxative," "Thermaline," and "Seditive," the latter being an improved form of putting up Seditive Powders.

R. S. White, Ft. Atkinson, shows samples of his Butter Color, which has proven to be at least equal to that manufactured by Eastern houses.

Wm. M. Eldredge, Janesville, shows samples of his "Sure Cure for Headache," "Pretence & Evenson, Janesville, exhibit a line of Toilet Articles and Specialties of their own manufacture, and a large quantity of Quina Cups.

E. B. Heimstreet, Janesville, displays samples of Bird Seed, Fish Food, and Glycerine Jelly.

E. B. HEIMSTREET,
W. F. CLARK,
F. F. PRENTICE,
Committee.

The Committee on Nominations recommended that the next meeting be held in Janesville January 15, 1880 and selected F. F. Prentice as the local secretary, which report was adopted.

The Committee on Notes and Queries presented the following notes and queries to be answered at the next meeting:

What pharmaceutical preparations and chemicals may be profitably made by the retail druggist?—O. A. Emerson, Beloit.

Of graduated measures supplied by jobbers, which are the most reliable? Spencer Ide, Evansville.

Is the addition of glycerine to official syrups advisable?—J. B. Driver, Burlington.

Compound Syrup Stillingia—of the many forms proposed, which is the best?—A. J. Roberts, Janesville.

The model prescription case—how should it be arranged?—W. M. Eldredge, Janesville.

Drug mills—which is the best for general use?—A. J. Window, Peewaukee.

Vanilla—how can this substance be best exhausted in preparing a fluid preparation of it?—J. M. White, Waukesha.

Is there a better method of preparing Syrup Ipecac than the one now in use?—W. S. Royden, Rockton, Ill.

Syrup Licorice—give formula for preparing from the extract.—A. H. Hollister, Madison.

Best formula for Simple Elixer.—K. D. Goodall, Beloit.

Syrup Licorice—formula for preparing from root.—N. K. Hollister, Delavan.

Formula for new fluid extracts.—F. S. Fenton, Beloit.

Best method of preparing Tincture Nux Vomica.—E. R. Smith, Beloit.

Tincture Opit.—O. L. Woodward, Clinton.

THE JAMES ROBBERY.
The examination of Ragan alias Smith, was concluded before Justice Prichard yesterday afternoon. After the State had rested its case, Attorney Smith in behalf of the defendant, moved that it be dismissed on the testimony, and this being promptly overruled, he declined to produce any witnesses, whereupon the prisoner was held to the Circuit court, bail being fixed at $500. Being unable to furnish this Ragan was committed to jail. It is claimed that Ragan was once before sent to Waupun from here, for one year, for burglarizing a store at Evansville, and if this charge is also proved against him, the outlook is not very bright for him.

Young Haggen, who was also arrested for taking a part in the assault and robbery, was discharged. Dr. James not being very positive as to his having been on the spot where the affair took place and other witnesses swearing he was elsewhere.

Dr. James was required to give $100 bail to appear as a witness on the trial of the case. Being unable to secure the needed bondsmen he was locked up in jail last night.

Mr. R. Schaffer, No. 31 Brown street, Allegany City, Pa., had the Rheumatism for eight years, and had used every known medicine without relief. A single bottle of St. Jacobs Oil cured him.

THAT LAMP POST.

Some time ago the Aldermen of the Third ward made a move in the Council to get a lamp post erected on the Main street side of the Myers house. Some of the Aldermen of the other wards opposed this, and urged that Myers' hotel was well enough lighted already, and kept harping upon the fact that there were three lamp posts already on the Milwaukee street side of that hotel and the Opera house. On the other hand it was urged that one of the three lamp posts spoken of belonged to Mr. Myers. It was proposed to take up one of these and move it to the corner, and to light the Opera house lamp only when there was some entertainment there, but the fight kept up against any change. It was argued that Main street from Milwaukee to Court was unlighted, and that this darkness should be done away with, but all in vain. Finally one of the opposition party introduced an order in favor of the erection of one post on the Southeast corner of Main and Milwaukee streets under the direction of Ald. Fitzgibbon, Chairman of the Gas Committee. This bait was swallowed and the motion prevailed. As soon as it became evident that Fitzgibbon was to locate it where it was not wanted at all, the Council moved to reconsider the matter, but some of the opposition skipped out and there was no quorum. Last Monday night the same means were resorted to, and the quorum broken again. Ald. Davies first getting excused, and then Ald. Fitzgibbon asking to be excused, was refused, and watching his chance soon after skipped out and the Council could do nothing.

This morning the workmen with shovels commenced excavating for the lamp-post. It became evident that the location fixed upon by Ald. Fitzgibbon was on the Milwaukee side, where there was enough light already, and more than all it was outside of the gutter, about three feet from the curb. For all practical purposes it might have been set in the middle of the street, as it was right where every team turning the corner would be liable to run against it. It became so evident that it was to be placed there from pure spite, that quite a little knot of citizens gathered about the corner, and grew quite excited over the matter. Ald. Church came along, and as Chairman of the Highway Street and Bridge Committee, ordered the work stopped, it being an obstruction to the street. The dirt was accordingly shoveled back again into the hole, much to the satisfaction of the by-standers. Ald. Church did well to thus stop the further progress of this bit of school-boyish foolishness. While, of course, the city should not erect lamp-posts in the interests of private individuals, at the same time it should be remembered that the wishes of such a heavy tax-payer as Mr. Myers, should have some weight in such a matter, and should at least weigh as much as the whims of a man who has no such financial interest in the city's prosperity; but in this case the interests of the city are evidently not to be enhanced by setting a lamp post in the middle of Milwaukee street, while Main street is left in comparative darkness.

MUSIC OF MERIT.

The musical given last evening by the pupils of Mrs. J. W. St. John and Prof. C. G. Titcomb, called together at Lappin's music hall, a very large audience gallery and main floor being filled. The audience seemed very appreciative, and each number was most heartily applauded. The participants in the programme did excellent work, and reflected great credit upon their instructors. Owing to the delay of freights caused by the railroad accident in Milwaukee, the piano designed for use on the occasion did not reach here in time, but another was secured which answered the purpose well.

- Miss Seraph Clinton and Miss Josie Brothers, of Brookfield, were necessarily absent, which caused some changes in the programme. The following was as it was carried out:
- (a) Overture—Fra Diavolo, 6th ed.—Auber—Cecily Misses Laura and Hattie Cram and Clara Church, of Janesville.
 - (b) Fantasia—William Tell, 2nd ed.—E. Dorn Miss Libbie Davis, of Port Atkinson.
 - (c) Song—Tell Me My Heart—Bishop.
 - (d) Song—Allegro di Molto, Sonata Op. 13.—Miss Clara Reed, of Janesville.
 - (e) Song—Blanche Bardick, of Edgerton.
 - (f) Song—Valse—Kunde, of Waukesha.
 - (g) Song—Capriccio, Miss Hattie Bates, of Milwaukee.
 - (h) Song—Allegro, 4th ed.—Bee King Miss Katie Harvey, of Jefferson.
 - (i) Song—Le Tortorella.—Artille Miss Nellie Murphy, of Janesville.
 - (j) Song—Cascade de Rones.—Ascher Miss Mattie Goodrich, of Milton.
 - (k) Song—Heaven's Chorister.—Piusini Miss Martha Willey, of Janesville.
 - (l) Song—Allegro—Sonata Op. 14, No. 2.—Bethoven Miss Clara Church, of Janesville.
 - (m) Song—Capriccio, Miss Kate Bennett, of Brookfield.
 - (n) Song—La Zingarella.—Campagna Miss Marie McKee, of Brookfield.
 - (o) Song—Rondo—Sonata, Op. 13.—Bethoven Miss Ella Bardick, of Milton.
 - (p) Song—Allegro—Allegretto, Op. 10, No. 2.—Bethoven Miss Ella Bates, of Janesville.
 - (q) Song—My Heart's My Own.—F. Clay Miss Lettie Beale, of Janesville.
 - (r) Song—Home, Sweet Home.—Thalberg Miss Laura Chapman, of Janesville.

Mrs. St. John's pupils showed clearly the result of their vocal culture, and that under her direction they had been making marked improvement. Her work speaks well for her.

Among Prof. Titcomb's pupils are some who themselves are also teachers of instrumental music, and last night there was a showing of some very brilliant work, which had no less indications of being thorough. The recital was in all respects highly satisfactory, not merely as an entertainment, but also as an indication of the admirable work which Mrs. St. John and Prof. Titcomb are doing in their several branches of musical culture.

BURGULARS AT WORK.

Tuesday night burglars attempted a raid on the residence of Congressman Williams. Mr and Mrs Williams were away from home at the time, but the hired girl heard a noise which in the confusion of waking from a sound sleep, she thought must be thunder. She arose and looking out of the window saw a clear sky, and then hunted elsewhere for the cause of the disturbance. It was found that some one or ones had gained an entrance to the cellar, by the windows, and had then tried to enter the upper part of the house by the cellar way. The door at the head of the cellar being fastened, it had been forced open by splitting a part of one of the boards, which had doubtless caused the noise which the girl had heard. Of course as soon as there began to be a stirring among the occupants of the house the burglars hastened away. It is deemed not unlikely that the burglars were the same fellows whom Mr. Richard Brown discovered that same night hanging about in the shadows of trees, and acting so suspiciously that he thought they were trying to rob him.

OVER THE HILLS TO THE POOR HOUSE.

The Fond du Lac Commonwealth, in speaking of the above drama, which will be presented at Myers Opera house, this evening, says:

A good house greeted A. O. Miller at the Opera house last night, and if the repeated cheers of approval mean anything, his listeners were delighted. As Muzzle Mr. Miller is a host, being one of the very best character impersonators of the day. He is immense. So is Mrs. Miller and the daughter Stella. That orchestra and band, composed partly of ladies, received unusual applause. The whole play is popular. It is fully equal to Uncle Tom's Cabin in the peculiar characteristics which strike home to the heart and sympathies of every listener. There is required no straining to catch the meaning or comprehend the acting. It is likable, natural, sympathetic and moral—and worth the money, every cent.

Seats can be secured at Moseley & Bro's bookstore.

LOOK OUT FOR THE "LARKS."

The "Larks" who are to open with "Hot Water" to-morrow night at Lappin's hall, are not new, and not an experiment, though this is their first visit here. They have traveled as far West as California, and have been South and East and met with wonderful success. This is the opening of their third season. Their entertainment is funny and yet refined. Speaking of Burton Stanley the New York Herald says:

Males very seldom succeed in aping the manners and customs of the gentler sex, but this young gentleman does it, and does it with such fidelity as to create a genuine sensation. He has been favored by nature with a person well adapted for the purpose. His voice is clear and sunny, like his face, and is under admirable control. In his array of color, beauty of design, and chaste delicacy of taste, Mr. Stanley's outfit by far exceeds any, female habiliments we have ever seen fitted to a female form. The public will be pleased to understand that Mr. Stanley in his impersonations does not give his audience the female impression, as so well known to the sight seeing public, but the truly refined and artistic realization of the Prima Donna per excellence with all that subdued grace practiced by the true lady.

STOCK OPERATIONS THAT PAY.

The past few weeks have been prolific of immense percentages of profits at the New York Exchanges, by the careful use of moderate sums in well managed stock transactions. Those who returned a legitimate gain on capital invested according to correct business principles. Great activity prevails in the market. The safest and most successful method for operating in a regular way is in Financial Union by the Protective System of Mutual Shares, which affords absolute guarantees that cannot possibly be assured otherwise. The vast aggregates on the sales of shares of this system, which have produced results surprising to all. The conservative basis of this system is its great safety. To be sure of gaining the large profits that accrue so quickly in stock movements, there must be reasonable protection against sweeping risks. This is why the Protective System excels all. On Monday three gentlemen in New York each invested $1,000 on Lake Shore stock by the Financial Union System, and on Thursday closed the operation with a net profit of $2,372.72 for each investor. Tuesday a bank cashier in Philadelphia put $3,500 in Protective Options on Northwestern stock, and on Saturday closed the contract with $12,085.75 profit. Early in the previous week two mechanics in Boston united their capital and invested $225 on Michigan Central, and 10 days afterwards they acknowledged receipt of $1,295.55 profit. The last week in July five farmers in Central New York invested $300 each in Financial Union on St. Paul stock, and on Thursday, the 11th of August, they closed the deal and divided $1,800 equally between them. A lady in one of the departments in Washington used $20 for two weeks in Protective on Western Union and Lake Shore stocks, and made clean profit of $370.68. On Saturday a prominent Pennsylvania politician invested $1,500 in Delaware, Lackawanna and Western and Michigan Central stocks, and in five days drew out of the market with $1,563.31 profit. A large brewer in St. Louis put $250 in Protective on St. Paul and Northwestern stocks, and fifteen days afterward closed with a gain of $14,958.37. These are examples of what has been accomplished in Financial Union by the Protective System of operating in stocks when good advice has been followed. With the present activity the prospects for gain in the near future are more favorable, as the operations are equally as good for catching the profit from fluctuations up or down as they occur. Amounts from $25 to $25,000 or more can be invested with proportionate success by the Financial Union System, on regular sales, that leave the control of funds in the hands of investors, with a definite knowledge at all times of just what stocks their money is on, so that they can seek a glance what their profits are at any hour of the day by referring to market quotations. All operators are assured of strictest treatment by the Financial Union System. Orders filled and information furnished by Messrs.
